Fall New Resident Welcome Bags, sign up by Sep. 11

Working with downtown Realtors, the Madison Central BID will again be creating welcome bags for our new downtown neighbors. Bags will be distributed by realtors to new home and condo buyers in Downtown Madison, as well as to New Residents that visit the Downtown Visitor Center. These bags are a great way for you to directly introduce your business and to create customer loyalty with new and/or returning residents in the downtown area.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

You provide:

- Small-size items promoting your business, from menus or brochures, to coupons or gift certificates, pens, notepads or other fun, unique items.

- If you supply coupons with expiration dates, please note that bags will be distributed to residents during fall and winter 2015 through spring 2016, so please make sure the expiration date is far enough away that residents have ample time to redeem them (e.g. Spring 2016 or later)

Number of items: 175

Confirm Participation by: Friday, September 11th with Tim Jenquin, BID Programming Coordinator, 608.512.1341, tjenquin@visitdowntownmadison.com.

Items Ready for Pick-Up by: Friday, September 18th

Downtown Ambassador Pick-Up Items at Your Location: September 21st – 25th

Questions? Contact Tim Jenquin, BID Programming Coordinator, 608.512.1341, tjenquin@visitdowntownmadison.com.

UW Fall Family Weekend (Oct. 9-11) Welcome Bag opportunity – deadline Sep. 18

UW Family Weekend (formerly Parents Weekend) is Oct. 9-11. Coordinated by UW-Madison's Parent Program, the annual Family Weekend event invites families of current UW students to visit October 9-11 to enjoy time on campus, in the community, and at special events. (Note: No Badger home game that weekend). More than 3,000 UW Parents and family members are expected to visit, and the Parent Program will hand out 700 Welcome Bags to UW families at check-in for their weekend. Welcome UW parents with promo item in the welcome bags. Deadline Sep. 18. Info Sheet with sign up form.

UW Homecoming Participation Opportunities – sign up by Sep. 16

UW Homecoming week starts Oct. 11. Parade Fri. Oct. 16, Badger Home Game Sat. Oct. 17. More than 10,000 people are expected to visit downtown for the annual Parade, and more than 200,000 people (alumni and students) will receive emails promoting Homecoming and the Red Shirt discount. Sign up by Sep. 16 to donate a prize or gift card for Homecoming Week events, offer an exclusive discount to wearers of the Red Shirt (official shirt of Homecoming), or participate in Store Window Painting during Homecoming Week. Sign Up Sheet with more info. Questions? Please contact Catherine Goslin at hcbusinessdirector@uwalumni.com or 312-533-1916.

Freakfest Ticket Outlet Opportunity

Freakfest on State Street will be Saturday, Oct. 31, with Frank Productions handling entertainment and ticketing. (Info Meeting Oct. 6, see below).

Sell consignment tickets for this event. Your business will be mentioned in press materials as a location for the sale and people will also be directed in ad materials to look for the Freakfest Ticket Outlet poster to purchase tickets. If interested, please let Frank Productions know ASAP. They are slated to announce the line-up on Sep. 3 and tickets will be going on sale Sep. 4. Info sheet.

Contact: Samantha Ambrosius, samantha@frankproductions.com or 608-267-3955.

Halloween Freakfest Business Info Meeting Oct. 6

Halloween Freakfest on State Street will be Saturday, Oct. 31, 2015. The whole length of State Street and some adjacent areas will be gated off from the evening of Sat. Oct. 31 to early morning, Sunday, Nov. 1. There will be entertainment stages, and tickets will be sold for admission. Since 2006, this format has dramatically reduced the disorder, property damage and arrests previously associated with Halloween on State St. The BID has coordinated this informational meeting so business and property owners can get information and ask questions. Attendance is strongly encouraged for business and property owners in the greater State Street area.

Meeting Date: Tuesday, October 6, 2015

Time: 3:00 pm

Location: Central Library Community Rm. 302, 201 W. Mifflin St. 3rd floor

Presenters: Mayor's Office, Central Madison Police District, Madison Parks, Frank Productions

Overview of: Freakfest logistics (fencing, parking, traffic, access, timing), entertainment, publicity, public ticketing, ticketing/access for property and business owners, employees, tenants, and residents within the gated area, with Question & Answer.

Downtown Family Halloween Trick or Treat location sign up (deadline Oct. 6)

The Downtown Madison Family Halloween is Wed., Oct. 28, 3:00 - 6:00 pm on State Street and the Capitol Square. This afternoon of free and low-cost family fun, shows, hayrides, activities, crafts, and trick or treating has become a Madison tradition. An estimated 1,500 families participated in 2014. BID member businesses - Sign up to be a Trick or Treat location and generate goodwill and visibility for your business with families and children! (Participating businesses and treats should be appropriate for children 12 & under.) More Info and Online Sign Up

Green Madison/Cool Choices business partnerships

Green Madison is our city's entry in the Georgetown University Energy Prize--a national competition that will award $5 million to the city that saves the most energy through 2016; money we can use to strengthen local businesses and improve all our lives. The first step is a simple, online game for your employees—Cool Choices. Employees will learn sustainable practices that save money and help the environment while they earn the chance to win prizes supplied by their favorite local businesses and restaurants. Green Madison has offered all Madison businesses access to a free, 60-day Cool Choices sustainability game. Sign up today and Cool Choices will guide you through all the steps to successful employee engagement! In addition, you can promote your business by offering sponsored prizes throughout the game, and your business will be recognized on the Cool Choices website. The game begins on September 28, 2015. Downtown Ambassadors Working for You People helped YTD (As of 8/30/15) – 26,590

The Downtown Ambassadors continue to assist more than 1,000 people each week at the Downtown Visitor Center and Info Booth with downtown shopping, dining, and entertainment suggestions. We expect the next few weeks to potentially be even busier as we see the UW Students return as well as many visitors come to town for various events and conventions, including Taste of Madison this weekend, Quilt Expo next week, and Ironman Wisconsin the following weekend.

Ambassador Deliveries to BID Businesses

The Downtown Information Ambassadors will make regular deliveries of various items to BID Businesses including welcome flyers for upcoming events and conferences, courtesy of our partner organization the Greater Madison Convention & Visitors Bureau (GMCVB). Here are the upcoming events for which Ambassadors will bring around flyers. If you do not receive a flyer but would like one, please contact BID Programming Coordinator Tim Jenquin to arrange delivery. (608) 512-1341, tjenquin@visitdowntownmadison.com. Extra copies of event flyers can also be found at the Downtown Visitor Center (452 State St.) after Ambassadors complete delivery.

BID Funded Planter Tubs

The Summer annuals, which are generously supported by Olbrich Gardens, were installed into BID funded planter tubs in June and will remain through October. Summer annuals have also been planted in selected beds in the District. Our thanks to Mall Maintenance and Parks for partnering on the holiday lights and downtown planting programs.

Mall Maintenance Sidewalk Washing Program update

The City Mall Maintenance intensive sidewalk washing program runs through early Oct., weather permitting. The program includes general pavement cleaning, detailed cleaning around benches & trash cans, and some gum removal. They will clean a specific area 2-3 days, from 6:30am to no later than 11:30am. If you have a sidewalk café, when they are cleaning in front of your business you will not be able to set up until after they are done (no later than 11:30 am). Please see Info Sheet for blocks to be cleaned (in list order). Questions, contact Lisa Laschinger, Parks Maintenance Supervisor, (608) 266-9214.

This and next week: Continuing to wash on South Carroll Street from West Washington toward State. When we finish that we will work on the Philosophers grove area, then the 100 block of State.
